

Beltaine Brew and Brawl

Friday, April 30 - Sunday, May 2, 2004

Come join the Incipient Canton Gleann nam Feòrag Dubh in the Barony of Bhakail as we celebrate our first ever event with camping. There will be A&S classes including a BREWER'S UNIVERSITY! We will also have Marshalled activities and tourneys (heavy, fencing, archery and thrown weapons). A bonfire will be lit Friday evening and burn through Saturday. A brewing competition will be held Saturday and a lottery will be held to win a chance to be a guest judge. A baronial court for Their Excellencies Lorcan Dracontius and Scheherazade al-Zahira will be held during feast which will be prepared by Lord Bilgisayar Tajir al-Hisoon and his lovely wife, Fiona Villon. Dayboard will be offered on Saturday. A "tavern" will be open on site in the evenings (donations suggested); please bring a photo ID - no one under 2 will be allowed in the tavern. Merchants are welcome and space is almost unlimited - contact the Merchant-crat William Fitzwater (mercrcrat@aol.com or 610-789-8571). All merchants are asked to sell their wares in the merchant area only. Group camping is readily available. Fire pits will be allowed in camps as long as they are attended at all times. Please bring fire extinguishers if you plan to have a fire in your encampment. Water is available on site for solar shower bags; there are no existing structures for showering. Beltaine festivals are traditionally held in a sheep pasture (warning!).

Site Rules (addendum to the ones listed in the description above):

- Pets must be leashed and children under 6 must be accompanied at all times.
- Cars unload only in the camping or merchant areas then move to the parking lot.
- Do not throw anything into the bonfire or the pond.
- Please do not feed the animals.
